

TZB-202E

I was looking at the alternative maps for rail in Rockland county, and I was wondering why the new rail is only using some of the existing Right of Way, and then shifting onto the land next to the Thruway. Why not use the entire old Railroad ROW to connect the new service to the Spring Valley station, and then branch off west from there?

